6 RISKS DRIVING COMMERCIAL AUTO LOSSES

1. ESCALATING MEDICAL COSTS
Auto accidents that cause bodily injury have compounding effects for business owners.

2. DISTRACTIONS
Multitasking drivers put lives at risk. However, distracted pedestrians are dangerous as well.

3. PERSONAL AUTOS AT WORK
Businesses retain the risk when employees use their own vehicles for work.

4. MORE ATTORNEY INVOLVEMENT
Claim costs are increasing as more lawyers get involved in more aspects of driving-related incidents.

5. INEXPERIENCED DRIVERS
International employees driving in the U.S. or employees operating unfamiliar vehicles contribute to increased risk on the road.

6. DATA PROLIFERATION
Data from electronic logs, traffic cameras, GPS, cell phones, and telematics might be publicly available.
